

Department of Interdisciplinary Program in Studies of Arts

About the department

The Department of Interdisciplinary Program in Studies of Arts is a large-scale interdisciplinary graduate program combining 13 departments in the College of Confucian Studies and Eastern Philosophy, College of Liberal Arts, and College of Social Sciences as well as majors related to Arts. We formulate a theory of the field of arts, build a diversified form of artistic expression based on interdisciplinary experimentalism, and also cultivate practical competitiveness through academic study and by finding a new methodology for the actual creation of art.

Vision & Mission

Our core mission is to train interdisciplinary and creative people who are competitive in both academic and practical ways in the field of art and contribute to the advancement of art and culture through interdisciplinary research.
